

JACEK JONAK
CHAIRMAN OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

EDUCATION:

Jacek Jonak is a graduate of the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Warsaw University and Ecole Nationale d'Administration in Paris.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

In 1995, Mr. Jonak was admitted as legal adviser by the Regional Chamber of Legal Advisers in Warsaw. In 1989-1992, he was employed at the Ministry of Finance and, subsequently, at the Ministry of Privatisation. From 1992 to 1996, he worked at the Polish Securities and Exchange Commission as the Secretary to the Commission, and since 1995 as Deputy Chairman responsible for the supervisory activities of the Commission. In 1997-2007, Mr. Jonak was a partner in the international law firm Allen&Overy. He currently runs an independent legal firm specialising in the area of financial markets, mergers and acquisitions and pharmaceutical law. Since 1995, he is a board member in Fundacja Dobrych Pomysłów (Foundation of Good Ideas), which he co-founded. Since 2006, Mr. Jonak holds the position in the Board of the John Paul II Centre Foundation "Nie lękajcie się" ("Have No Fear"), a church legal person in Kraków, and since 2008 he is a member of the management of the Stowarzyszenie Przymierze Rodziny (a non-business activity association). Since November 2007, he is the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of IPOPEMA Securities S.A. Since April 2012 he is a member of the supervisory board of Aviva PTE (and since July 2015 also the chairman of its audit committee). In August 2017 he became a member of the supervisory board of GO TFI S.A.